

WARRICK COUNTY COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 2000-3

A Resolution Supplementing Warrick County Council Resolution 2000-2 Expressing Interest in the Purchase of Real Estate Commonly Known as 118 N. Second Street in the City of Boonville, Indiana

WHEREAS, the construction of the Warrick County Judicial Center has created a need for additional parking spaces, and

WHEREAS, real estate adjacent to the Judicial Center is available for purchase, and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the citizens and taxpayers of Warrick County for negotiations to be held regarding the purchase of said property.

WHEREAS, the Warrick County Council believes additional sites may be appropriate for review by the Warrick County Commissioners.

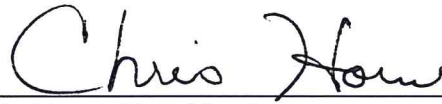

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED by the Warrick County Council that this resolution should be passed in order to express interest in the purchase of real estate adjacent to or near the Warrick County Judicial Center.

Pursuant to this resolution, the Warrick County Commissioners are free to negotiate with the owners of property adjacent to or near the Warrick County Judicial Center for its purchase in order to increase parking

At such time as the Warrick County Commissioners have made what they believe is their best offer on the most appropriate property they may appear before the Warrick County Council for consideration of an additional appropriation for funding of said purchase.

PASSED this 2nd day of March, 2000.
